Rubbish Heaps Fire Hazards, Says Merritt

County Agent C. M. Merritt today warned farmers to dispose of rubbish accumulations promptly. "Otherwise," the agent said, "the waste material may dry out and become ideal tinder for a discarded match or stray spark."

Many farmers, burdened with farm chores, are apt to let piles of rubbish, leaves and grass lie around for weeks, the County Agent stated. "Disposal of this waste should come under the heading of farm 'house-cleaning.' Not only are the piles a definite fire hazard, but they are unsightly and often breed disease.'

Piles of moist manure and other rubbish have been known to ignite by spontaneous combustion, he pointed out. "Very often farmers 'touch off' the piles by uncovering the damp underlayers. On being exposed to the air, the piles catch on fire." "Because of the fire hazard that is always present around such piles, farmers should have approv-ed fire extinguishers handy," the County Agent added. "Extinguishers are also a must in the kitchen and barns for once a farm fire gets out of hand a farmer's life work can be wiped out in a few

This was the first show of this kind for the city of Waco.

The Polled Hereford Breeders put forth an extra effort to make it a success. Cattle exhibited for sale were a credit to the breed, Howard said.

Howard bought three young bulls at the sale and will let any Medina County breeder have one or all of them without extra charge as he is anxious to see more of these good buils come to Medina County.

Lytle High School Organizes Band

Lytle high school is organizing a band. More than 70 students have joined. All are beginners This means most of them will be in the band for four to seven

More than 30 horns have been purchased by the students themselves and the school has bought the bigger and more expensive instruments.

A band booster club or a band parents club will be organized to help build the band. Devine News.

MEDINA VALLEY LIONS TO INITIATE NEW MEMBERS

DEVINE - At meeting of the directors of the Medina valley Lions Club held at Natalia Wednesday evening plans were made to initiate a class of new members.

It is hoped that the District Governor will be able to be present. This will be LADIES NIGHT, and the meeting will be held at Lytle. Lion Meredith Bright will be in charge of the initiation.

LOW LAKE LEVEL EXPOSES CHIMNEY OF SUBMERGED HOUSE

MICO - A Mormon Camp was located beside the Medina River above the Lockhart home before the dam was built. One of the old timers from that section was in the office the other day and was describing this camp. When the Dam was built there remained an old rock house with a large chimney, and since the lake is lower than it has been in many years the old chimney is now showing above the water.

L. O. Howards Of D'Hanis First Poll Tax Payers

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Howard of D'Hanis were the first ones in the county to pay their 1948 poll taxes at the office of Tax Assessor and Collector James R. Duncan when payment started last Wednesday.

Poll tax, charged at the rate of $1.75 per person, will not be charged this year with the propcrty tax, so everyone must either mail it in or bring it to Duncan's office. This new method will probably result in a great drop in poll tax payments, so Duncan urged that such organizations as the Hondo Jaycees, the Chamber of Commerce, the Lions and any other civic organizations of the county to stage drives for payment of the poll tax so the people will retain their voting privilege.

Duncan also announced that in 1947 there was a gain over the county of $141,000 in property

Service Oct. 2 For Fritz Balzen

Born March 19, 1876, in the Sturm Hill sommunity, the de-ceased was son of Harm Balzen and Antje, nee DeGrodt, both of whom were born in Germany. He spent all of his life in Medina County, living for the past several years in Hondo after farming in earlier years. Interment was in Quihi cemetery. Surviving are the widow, Tedosia Balzen; eight children; two brothers, Rolf of Comfort and Ben of Hondo; three sisters, Mrs. Wieblen, Castroville, Mrs. C. F. Meyer, Hondo, and Mrs. F. F. Mumme, Dunlay.

Briscoe Starts New Addition

DEVINE -- Joe E. Briscoe, prominent attorney of Devine, has bought a 20 acre tract in North West Devine which he will divide into city lots.

New addition will be know as the Joe E. Briscoe Windy Noll Addition to the town of Devine. Present streets in the locality will be widened and three new streets will be added. Construction of two of these homes began Wednesday. When completed this addition will add 70 lots, each 60 by 150 to the Town of Devino. This is the second project of the kind for Mr. Briscoe in Devine. In the past year he built ten new dwellings which sold readily as soon as completed.

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY SUBJECT OF LECTURE AT DEVINE THURSDAY NIGHT

Rhoda Galloway Service Oct. 5

Funeral services NATALIA were held at the Baptist Church in Devine for Rhoda Galloway, aged 11 years, 10 months, at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Oct. 5, Rev. Bowen officiating.

Rhoda passed away at 8 o'clock Saturday morning after several months illness. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galloway, one brother, Lt. Ray, who is stationed somewhere in Japan, and five sisters, Mrs. Caroil Tell at National City, California, Mrs. Truman Breevogel of Bloomington, Mrs. Jack Beaty of Oceana, Virginia, Vernell and Jimmie Ruth.

Interment was at Franklin.

Baptist Revival Set Oct. 26

Rev. Ferman Weedon, associate District Missionary, will be evangelist for the Honde First Baptist Church when their two week revival campaign begins Oct. 26, and Sunday School teachers of the church are now engaged in taking a religious census in preparation for the meeting according to a statement this week by Rev. John Allen, local pastor.

This revival will be a part of the simultaneous revival effort of the Del Rio-Uvalde association of churches at which time some 19 churches will be holding meetings. In densely populated areas all evangelists and pastors come to-gether each day for lunch and to discuss problems, however in this association only two such general meetings of the workers are plan-

BULLETIN

An estimated $262,000 will be the cost of construction of the new road between Devine and Jourdanton, to run a distance of 25.6 miles in Atascosa, Frio and Medina counties. The road has been approved.

Deposits in the Hondo National Bank show an increase of about $500,000 this week over the last report released for publication June 30 of this year.

Statement for the bank on total deposits for the close of business on June 30 showed $4,421,800.80.
Deposits released to The Anvil Herald on Oct. 6 showed $4,972 147.11. Increase is chiefly due to the tremendous broomcorn and maize crops going to market in the last two months. Preliminary estimates placed the values of these crops at over $500,000 and over $600,000 respectively. Deposits jumped initially by three quarters of a million dollars early in September from the marketing impetus, but considerable sums have been withdrawn since then.

Deputy Poe Resigns Office

Deputy Sheriff Robert A. Poe handed in his badge last Saturday night to County Sheriff Jack Fusselman after serving as a county deputy for slightly over four Poe filled the vacancy caused the resignation of Rhinehart Weber, who had resigned a few weeks previous and has since been working along the border as a River Rider.

No reasons have been given for Poe's resignation, and as yet no word has been received on a replacement. C. A. Hitzfelder remains as chief deputy, and in Hondo he is aided by Night Watchman McClaugherty and Game Warden Timmerman.

S. A. Delegation To Come Tuesday To Organize

Hondo's Jaycees, first Junior Chamber of Commerce to be organized in Medina County, will start off with a bang this month when they bring the Mills Brothers three ring circus to Hondo as a money making measure to pave the way for their campaign of civic improvement.

Jaycees will sell all advance adult tickets, and a contact man for the circus was scheduled to arrive in Hondo this week to take care of reserved seat sales, children's tickets and promotion. The Hondo Jaycees already have in their possession 1,000 tickets for Delegation from San Antonio's junior chamber met in Hondo Monday to assist in organization and arrange affiliation of the Hondo group with the state and national organizations.

Two weeks ago a Uvalde delegation visited the forming Hondo group to explain a few details on the workings and administration of the junior chamber.

The Jaycees will meet again
Tuesday night for the most important gathering to date, and all Jaycees are urged to be at the regular meeting place at 8 p.m. sharp. A San Antonio Jaycee delegation again will be present and all members present to fill out necessary forms will be listed on the Jaycee charter as charter members. Dues, set at $12 annually, payable in advance in two $6 semi annual installments, will be collected at the meeting Tuesday night.

Monday night San Antonio Jaycee Wood stressed that the function of the Jaycees was to do for their city internally what the regular C. of C. tried to do externally. While the C. of C. attracts new businesses to Hondo, helps them, and "puts Hondo on the map," the Jaycees will work on the things within the city that can be fixed up to improve it. This will include beautification projects, promotion of further recreational facilities, clean-up campaigns and so forth.

Start Mailing Overseas Boxes October 15

Christmas may seem like a long ways off yet, but it's time to start thinking of it right now if you have soldiers overseas because mailing time for the parcels going to them starts next week, according to Postmaster Harry Filleman.

Mailing dates are Oct. 15 to
Nov. 15 for any members of the armed forces overseas or for civilian employees overseas. parcels should be endorsed with the words "Christmas Parcel" so the post office will give them special treatment to get them there on time. Christmas cards, should be sent before Nov. 15 to be sure they arrive in time, and put them in an envelope and send them first class. Boxes should be stronger than usually used for packages not going overseas, Filleman said. It is absolutely necessary that all articles for overseas be packed in boxes of metal, wood or strong corrugated fiber board testing at least 200 pounds.

NATALIA P.-T.A. MEETS THURSDAY

Natalia P. T. A. with Mrs. J. J. Pennington as president will meet Thursday night in the Baptist church. A panel discussion of two teachers and two parents will be the main highlight of the program. All patrons of the school are urged to come out and make this a good

Natalia Library Add 500 Books

NATALIA - Superintendent M. B. Tilley received notice recently that his bid on a large number of books from Army Surplus had been accepted and that he should receive the books by Oct.

This will add over five hundred volumes of fiction, biography, and technical books to the library which has been moved into the new li-brary-study hall building. Books will be available to students as soon as they can be catalogued and placed on the shelves.

SWING OF TEXAS MARKETS

Southwest farm markets paid mostly firm to higher prices for livestock, grains, and many other products last week, according to the Production and Marketing Ad-ministration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Hogs scored gains of mainly 50 cents to $1. San Antonio and Fort Worth established new all time high prices of $28. 25 and $29.50 respectively. Weeks' top at Oklahoma City was $29.75, Wichita $29.60, and Denver $30.50.

Cattle closed the week generally strong to 50 cents higher, although Houston and San Antonio metted losses on steers and yearlings. Houston paid a top of $22 for medium and good caked grass steers. San Antonio bought low to average medium steers at $20. Ft. Worth took good fed steers and yearings at $23 to $27.50. Oklahoma City paid $27 to $29 for good and choice steers, and Wichita gave $20 to $25 for medium light steers and yearlings. Denver set a new all time high of $33 for choice steers, while other medium to choice kinds brought $25 to

Most markets paid steady to higher prices for sheep last week, but sheep and goats declined at San Antonio. Medium to good lambs brought $18 to $19.25 at San Autonio, and $19 to $21 at Fort Worth. Good and choice sold al $21.50 down at Oklahomam City. around $22 at Wichita, and up to $23.50 at Denver

Fogs and poultry sold firm to a little higher in the southwest last week. Seasonally best white graded eggs brought around 55 to 58 cents per dozen at most places, and mixed colors 50 to 56. Most markets paid 37 to 40 cents per pound for good quality full sized fryers, 24 to 28 for heavy hens and 10 to 15 for roosters. Continued good domestic and export demand kert grain mar-kets strong most of the week. Corn and wheat netted gains of 5 to 15 cents, while oats, barley and sorghum grains advanced about 5 cents. No. 1 hard ord nary wheat closed Friday at $2.94 per bushel at Texas points; while No. 2 white cern brought $2.55 to $2.50.

Further declines in rough rice prices during the past week re-flected slow demand for milled rice. Feed markets appeared more settled and most prices remained unchanged. Hay demand exceeded supply at principal markets, and sitaifa advanced about $1 per ton. Light offerings of shelled peanuts lound slow demand. Average-togood staple fine woo's sold in Texas at grease prices of 44 to 54 cents a pound.

Slight ups and downs during the week left cotton $1 22 to $2.50 lower Friday. Growers in all sections called for more peckers as harvesting conditions were ideal.

Colorado cauliflower weakened toward the end of last week, but potatoes and onions strengthened materially. Denver received good supplies of nearby fruits and vegetables due to absence of severe early frosts. Fort Worth was cleaning up heavy supplies of New Mexico and Colorado tomatoes, and bunched carrots sold stronger. Cucumbers and onions moved higher at Denver, St. Louis and Kansas City, where tomatoes, cabbage and cantaloups remained unchanged. New Orleans held mostly stea-

WORMS FOUND IN ALMOST ALL FLOCKS

It is a rare flock of chickens that is completely free from worms. Indeed, one is not far from wrong in assuming that worm parasites can be found wherever there are poultry.

Most poultrymen begin to suspect worms only when their chickens develop symptoms which are visible to the eye. In reality, such symptoms are an indication that the affected birds are heavily ridden by parasites and that the infestations are so severe that the over-all health of each bird is lowered in marked degree. When worms in great numbers infect a bird, the health of the bird may be damaged beyond hope of complete recovery, and even death may result. Of course there are thousands of flocks that are healthy in appearance and give no indione of worminess: vet. rasites. There may not be eagn of them to cause visible effects among the chickens, worms are there-and HONDO, TEXAS multiply so rapidly. Chickens become infected when they eat worm eggs in an intermediate host (insects) or from the soil, litter or feed. In the chicken these eggs will hatch and produce more worms which consume feed taken by the bird, robbing her of good she needs. In time the newly hatched parasites lay more ggs and these are passed out thru the bird's droppings into the soil where they may be picked up by another chicken. Thus, Ne cycle is completed.

Some types of worms are estimated to lay up to 50,000,000 eggs each, so if only a tany fraction of these egg lodge and hatch inside a chicken there is a strong possibility that a heavy infestation may develop unless the flock owner takes counter action.

Because of the nature of the worm cycle, the obvious way to avoid worm damage is to practice strict sanitatio: chickens are housed under dirty, unsanitary conditions, the worms as well as disease of many kinds are more likely to spread than would be the case n a clean and sanitary house.

The Texas Safety Assn. joins with Gov. Beauford Jester in urging every citizen of Texas to drive carefully at all times and in particular where there may be child traffic to prevent a recurrence of last year's automobile death toll of 273 children under the age of 15 and the toll of 644 children who died as the result of other types of accidents. Gov. Jester emphasized that it is imperative that children be instilled with the necessity of being careful at play, careful at school and on the way to and from school; and that they learn the rules of safety every day and every week. He said parents by their own safe habits can set examples that mean much to their children in the development of their habits.

Parents know that the world is a world of wonder and adventure and DANGER to their children. The Texas Safety Assn., conducting a Back-to-School campaign, asks you to give this plenty of thought. There are many things you would not want your children to learn by experience alone-at the cost of extreme pain, or perhaps even tragedy. Start early to teach your youngsters the good reasons for safe habits. Show them by example how to avoid all the traffic dangers. Your experience is their best teacher. Parents who furnish their children safe habits along with vitamins, knowledge and good manners are training those children for life-

INFORMATION

for those who have been wondering why
The Anvil Herald costs a little more when sent to addresses outside Medina County

Last year the price of The Hondo Anvil Herald was increased about 2c per week to those who live outside Medina County.

This was done because the cost of sending papers outside the county is considerably more, and for that reason only.

For example, take the case of

Mrs. Andrew X. Subscriber 3243 Mountain Drive Denver 6, Colorado

In addition to the regular cost of printing the paper, we have to perform each of the following operations 52 times per year, most of which are not required for subscribers in this county.

1. Supply a wrapper for the paper, cutting them to the proper size.

2. Paste an address label on each wrapper, (In the case of towns like Dalias, we stamp about 5 copies and then wrap this small bundle separately, and write "Dallas, Texas" on the bundle wrapper.)

3. Apply paste and wrap each copy or small bundle individually — by hand.

4. Tie the papers in bundles according to the routing they will receive on trains that carry them from Hondo to the destination. Years ago this sorting was done by postal employees.

5. PAY EXTRA POSTAGE for all papers that leave Medina County — from 1 1/2 c per pound to 6c per pound, depending on the distance.

The five reasons listed above cost us more than 2c extra every week for the subscribers who live outside the county. However, we know that folks who are away from home like to read their hometown news - in fact, we often hear it called "a letter from home".

In addition to all the extra costs listed above, Mrs. Andrew X. Subscriber frequently moves without letting The Anvil Herald know about it. When her papers start piling up at the mail box, the post office lets us know about it, on a little return card that costs us 2c every time we get one. This expense alone runs into many dollars every year, and nearly all of these notices come from outside Medina County.

We thought you might like to know why we were forced to make the extra charge - it is not a profit - but it does partially cover the cost of the extra work mentioned above.

Dawson Plowboy First-Stringer

STEPHENVILLE, Oct. 9-Arthur Allen Dawson, a former Hon-do High school All-District football star, is a key man on the Tar-leton Plowboys team this year, holding down the starting position at guard.

Dawson, sophomore, physical education major, at Tarleton, transferred this semester from Trinity University, where he was also a member of the football

Passed to Amberson for the point. Pearsall took the kickort and started another march until Norwood rmeared one of their stars, Riggs, so hard he had to be taken out. Galloway took over agair. made a couple of gains, then slipped the ball to left end Carroll who went 55 yards for the score. A

The Owls wasted no time moving into the lead this time. Braden took the kickoff back to his 45, Carle picked up a first down, and then Braden scampered 55 yards for another Owl score.

Exactly the same pass play, from a fake kick, made the point, and the Owls lead 14-12, as the first quarter ended.

With Galloway out after being smeared by Eugene Norwood, the Owls held and forced a punt. The Cwis started advancing and then a 15 yard penalty for illegal shift put them too far in the red to pull out, forcing a punt from their own 10. Galloway took it on his own 35 and ran all the way for a touchdown. The kick was good, and Pearsall moved into the lead 19-14.

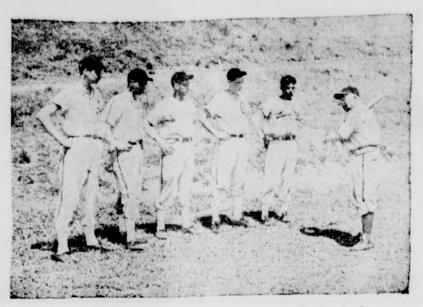

The Owls started another march, reeling off three first downs be-fore a penalty for off side set them back. Then the line leaked and Boon was caught away back. With fourth and 18 coming up, Braden took a chance, faked a punt and passed. It was no good, and the ball went over on downs on the Pearsall 43. Riggs ran for one first down as the half ended.

Boon, Braden, Mueller and Amberson chalked up first downs when the third period opened up with Boon finally running over for another Owl score. The phony kick-pass play didn't work and the Owls led 20-19.

On the kickoff Timmerman caught Galloway on his own 45, or it would have been a sure touchdown. Mueller then threw Galloway for a loss and a couple of plays later they punted into the end zone. The only thing that kept Boon from a touchdown just before the end of the quarter was his own blockers getting in his wayhe was that fast. As the fourth started the Owls were on the road again when a fumble gave Pearsall the ball. They lost it on downs a few plays later, and on the first play the Owls fumbled and Pearsall took over just 35 yards from pay dirt. Galloway went over in one play, the kick was no good and Pearsall led 25-20.

In the hectic last five minutes Hondo advanced to within 10 yards of a touchdown twice, only to be called back to midfield on rule infractions. Braden finally ran it down to around the 20 as the game ended.

Hondo didn't win, but the Owls proved they were a fighting out-fit who wouldn't say die. If they lose another game, we'll be sur-

Going into the game outweighed six pounds to the man, the Eagles completely outplayed the Fredericksburg team throughout the game. Only once, late in the game, did St. Mary's get as far as the Eagles 20 yard line.

It was a case of hard running by "Corky" and "Sleepy" Keller and some good blocking by Land, Hutzler, Lutz, and Bippert that kept the Fredericksburg defense busy during the night. "Corky" scored two touchdowns and "Sleepy" scored one. Lutz and Land each caught a touchdown pass, while Lutz converted for two Outstanding men for Fredericksburg were Jenschke and Wallendorf on offense, while Besier and Hahmann played good defensive

So far this season, Coach G. C. Herring's Eagles have piled up a total of 154 points to the opponent's 14 points in four games. La-Coste defeated Big Wells 36-8, Harper 2-6, Pawnee 48-0, and St. Mary's 38-0. These have all been non-conference games. Conference play will begin on Oct. 17 with Catarina invading LaCoste.

HONDO'S FIRST ORGANIZATION FOR PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE

Apropos of the observance of Fire Prevention Week, we are reminded that when we cast our lot with the people of Hondo 44 years ago this week Hondo was without any organized system whatever of protection from fire.

There wasn't a fire-plug in the town and what water that was to be had came through small pipes and ordinary sprinkling hose.

When fire broke out the first to discover it yelled "Fire" until he attracted attention and his neighbors turned loose a fusilade of gun-fire that sounded like an incipient revolution and the entire population congregated at the scene, some to fight the flames with whatever crude means they found available, others to view the holocaust.

Strange; but a fire holds a strange fascination for most of us and being less frequent - and because of lack of means to cope with the flames - more destructive then than now, it was more of a novelty and created more excitement.

As the population increased the town's need for some means to (See Fletcher Davis, last Page)

Fix your lights so that you can be seen by the other fellow and your brakes so that you can stop, and you'll be all right under the new traffic law, which went into effect Sept. 5.

You must have two burning headlamps and a burning red tail light. The only thing which every motorist has to have after Jan. 1, 1948, which he may not have now is a little white light on the rear license plate. Formerly, reflectors were enough on trailers of all kinds, but after Jan. 1 a burning red tail light is required for any vehicle whatsoever on the road. Trucks and buses under 80 inches wide must have in addition to other lights a stop light and two red reflectors on the rear.

Trucks or buses over 80 inches wide or having an actual or registered gross weight in excess of 3,000 pounds must have the following lights besides the headlamps, tail light, license plate light, stop light and two red re-

SABINAL HOSPITAL

Editorial column of the Sabinal Graphic lashed critically at a story printed in a San Antonio paper saying Sabinal was "balking" the county hospital. The story was written from Uvalde. According to the Graphic, Sabinal did not balk the plan but requested a Sabinal branch for the high proportion of the county population living East of the Frio, a plan to which the Uvalde delegation agreed willingly. The branch would be an emergency ward.

We've been taking their ear drum shattering long enough. There is absolutely no justification for the peace and quiet nor for the business of Hondo being disrupted at all hours of the day and night by train whistles.

There are modern methods of eliminating whistles. These methods can be used here in Hondo. There's a new thing called electricity. It's a wonderful substitute for noise.

Electricity can be used in thousands of ways for radio and lighting signals. There are only a few crossroads in Hondo. It would take only a few signal light devices. Lighting or radio could also be used for inter-train signals and the cost would be small in comparison with what it would buy.

I, in my car, can get arrested for blowing my horn in front of a hospital. But the SP can blow blast after blast, day and night, send shattering sound reverberating through the walls of hospitals and homes, and nobody cares except all the people. Is it that all the people don't count? Maybe we'd better dig out that Declaration of Independence and read it

The railroad will probably say they can't afford electric signals. But the new traffic code TELLS me what I must have, whether I can afford it or not. If I cannot afford the lights and equipment required by law, I have the privilege of not driving. Surely the SP will not deny that they can afford to run a railroad.

If our laws say we can do nothing about it, it is time we changed those laws. Let's get busy NOW.

Europe Wants 40 Billions

WASHINGTON. - The state department heard some stories not generally circulated, that the Europeans had just about decided at Paris to try to take from the United States 38 to 40 billion dollars more in four years. The figures were pub-Lished vaguely from Paris in one New York paper, although not otherwise, yet they must have been mentioned in the confidential official dispatches, as this government decided to act fast.

Forty billions is double what anyone had mentioned anywhere before, and four times as much as the hapless Ben Cohen had guessed in a speech would be necessary-a guess which caused him to retire, without objection, as counsel to the state department.

At once, Acting State Secretary way station across the beautiful Lovett dispatched two men to Paris. Flushing Mead-One is George Kennan, top-bracket ows in the twimanipulator on the Marshall gen- light, the scent of eral staff, or what might be called new-mown grass chief of staff of his policy planning all about us, with commission. Kennan is supposed to one of those prodbe the Mr. X who wrote so straightigies, an "instant forwardly against Russia in Foreign translator." She Affairs Quarterly, far more straight- was one of the feforwardly than any official has done male of the spebefore under his own name. They cies who are say Kennan is greatly respected by quite as efficient State Secretary Marshall, and is one of the most influential men in the department now. With him went feminine charm Charles Bonesteel, a special assistant who is not well known.

EXTRAVAGANT DEMANDS

Will Clayton, the foreign trade assistant, was supposed to be in Paris looking out for American interests at the conference, although this country is not officially participating. But Clayton has been down at Geneva most of the time working on the international trade meeting, and the European planners at Paris have been just Topsying along, concentrating on their own ills, seeing how much money they could use from us, without any advice as to how much might reasonably be

What Kennan and Bonesteel were sent to tell the European statesmen was evident in an offthe-record press conference held next day by a top state depart-ment official. His words were much stronger and more threatening than indicated thereafter in the public announcement from the Kennan-Clayton conference in Paris, although the restrictions against publication siderably to reach the public.

He said such figures were extravagant and out of all line. If Euro- in their own governments do not pean demands for money from us wish them to make enough concesget too high, wide and handsome, sions to rob the officials in the difwe will have to call off the whole ferent governments of their own advance planning - the Marshall

But even if Paris is reasonable, we may not have enough money ourselves to furnish half what is wanted. The true basis of the Marshall plan, which Europe seems to be forgetting, is that the European nations will first help themselves to the utmost, to show how they can re-establish themselves if certain aid is given, and then we will see about the aid. For instance, we may have to send tractors so they can work their own fields, instead of sending wheat, the finished product.

WHERE WILL MONEY COME FROM?

The Europeans were advised to change their demands and measure them to the realities of our situation.

No official said so, but Kennan and Bonesteel could well have been instructed to tell Clayton to tell the Europeans, they should not only demand what they need, but tell us how we are going to raise the money in this country to furnish itwhether by current high or still higher taxation, whether by increasing our staggering war debt, now above 250 billion dollars or what.

The whole European conception of the Marshall plan obviously had grown out of reality into a sort of proposed grab-bag, and the administration acted hastily to correct it, knowing full well the limitations which might be imposed against any free money running scheme by a Republican congress. In line with manent committee of the assembly all this, a report from the Harriman committee of 19 will be released soon on just how much aid this nation can afford to give Europe without running our prices up into an council itself, and thus duck the even higher stratosphere.

General Assembly Gets Under Way

U. N. Delegates Convene At Town Hall of the World

By BAUKHAGE

WASHINGTON .- At the opening of the current session of the United Nations general assembly I made the usual rounds greeting friends from far corners of the earth whom these meetings bring together. Two converged upon me and one of them began to discourse on the fact that we three were becoming conference

He started to say " . . . let's see how many is it, there was the first Quebec, then the second Quebec. . . ." But the other man interrupted him and remarked gently: "Oh, no, it goes further back than that. This is my forty-fourth. Remember there was a League of Nations, too?'

The younger man stopped. Of course, his gray haired colleague was right. "And you still believe," the younger man asked earnestly, "that some day they'll work?"

"Certainly," was the reply. And it was made with such simple sincerity that we "youngsters" felt a little

The next day I walked to a rail-as the males. But it was not her which attracted me, if such were to be discovered.

Baukhage

I tried to ask her a little about her work, my first question being: "Isn't it interesting?

"Interesting? Oh, for a while," she answered, "but one would like to get around a little more. I have been here since spring. I'd like to get back to the Orient and-other

I mentioned that we had had simultaneous translation at Nuernberg. "Oh, I was there," she said, "and always cold. One could never get warm, any-where." I agreed. "And," she added, "I went there direct from India."

I tried to get some observation from her on the idea behind these conferences and their effort to bring about world understanding and world peace. "Do you think that they are worthwhile?" I asked. (We're always asking that, hopefully if a little wistfully.) "Oh, yes," she replied quickly,

"they are much better than none at all, much. But I feel that the men the Russian delegation. That name here do not really wish to make sacrifices to have peace. The men power. And so the beautiful words they use are only rationalization. They express idealistic thoughts, but when it comes to acting to implement them, they do not wish to go that far. They already have satisfied that feeling they know they should have, to do the right thing. Then they do not have to do it. Just as all of us rationalize our own misconduct."

That gave me a pause.

It also gave me some hope for this session for I believe that the powers of the assembly will be strengthened so that they can enforce what the people want. The fine words and idealistic plans will have more force if the permanent committee of the assembly on peace and security, which Secretary of State Marshall proposed, is created. It will be in session all the time. Its voice, unmuffled by the overuse of the stultifying veto, will be heard continuously; not merely when the assembly itself is in session.

Words Contain

Great Significance

Words still are making trouble, as they always have. It isn't what we say so much as what people think we mean. For instance, there was a long discussion of the word "impinge," on the second day of the assembly meeting. This was just the English meaning, discussed among English-speaking reporters. Secretary Marshall had said this new perwould not "impinge" on the security council. The great argument about the committee has been that it was intended to by-pass the security

If the English-speaking reporters weren't quite sure how far you go, or don't go, when you "impinge," it's no wonder there was confusion when it was translated into half a dozen other languages.

It was the translation of one word which nearly caused a revolution in Korea and made the work of the American commission there infi-nitely more difficult. It also has affected the whole course of action by the assembly on Korea. It was the word "trusteeship."

There is no word which properly translates "democracy" in Russian. When using the term the Russians merely give the English word its Russian form. But what a gulf between their meaning and ours. Liberty of the individual is not implied at all in the Russian concept.

Indeed, many people have said there is no real desire for liberty on the part of the modern Russian generation. And yet they constantly describe their country and their satellites as "democracies."

There was a good deal of electioneering before and during the close battle over the election for the presidency of the assembly. At first the American delegation had intended to vote for Oswaldo Aranha of Brazil. He is an old and staunch friend of the United States. But he felt that Brazil had had enough honors at the recent conference in Rio, that he had served one term before and that it would be best not to run. He said he didn't want the job. So our delegates pledged for Evatt of Australia, who was exceedingly anxious to be elected. But the Latin-Americans would have none of it. They demanded Aranha run. The contest narrowed to him and Evatt. This put Russia on the spot. Latin-America wants to liberalize the veto, Evatt would tear it to pieces. And the veto is the Russian pet. But the United States was for Evatt so Russia voted for Aranha and he

The Russian delegation went into a huddle on the floor. The Russian stooges had to be told just how to vote. And who should be the man who ran around, taking orders-or shall we say suggestions-from the Russian delegation to the various groups, Albania, Poland and the others under the Russian thumb?

It was Sarge M. Koudtiavtsev, a member of the staff of advisors to didn't mean much to me but I was reminded by Paul Ward of the Baltimore Sun, who always has a sharp eye out for such matters, that this active gentleman was the man named as the "architect" of the Russian spy system, in the report on the plot to obtain official secrets from the Canadian government.

Two women are exceedingly popular at the assembly meetings and their popularity seems to grow. One is Mrs. Pandit Nehru, wife of the Indian leader, and one is Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt. They are both active and intelligent. Mrs. Pandit (last names come first in India, as in many other countries) has been named ambassador to Russia by her new government.

I couldn't help thinking, considering the recent emancipation of women in India that Mrs. Pandit was more like Mrs. Roosevelt, than Mrs. Roosevelt herself, when you consider the unconventionality of both judged by the standards of their respective older generations.

Conserve Food: Truman; U.N. Adopts Agenda

FOOD PLANS:

Conservation

It wasn't hard for President Truman to figure out: Europe is in desperate need of food from the U.S. but the U. S. will leave itself wide pen for even greater price spiralling if it boosts its exports much

The answer, he told a special press conference, is food conservation by all Americans. It is not a matter of eating any less, he said, but of

In line with that, he announced the setting up of a citizens food committee to develop a food conservation program in the nation. Charles Luckman of Cambridge, Mass., president of Lever Brothers, was named Regarding Europe, Mr. Truman said the food and fuel situation there is too critical to allow time for detailed study. Thus, apparently in an emergency frame of mind, the President called together congressional leaders to discuss possible steps that could be taken immediately to aid the starving continent.

If possible, he said, he would not call a special session of congress if stop-gap aid for Europe could be pushed through without resorting to that step.

Americans could start preparing for a heavy barrage of food conservation propaganda.

TOUGH AGENDA:

No Dodging

United Nations general assembly going to dodge any issues.

After riotous preliminary sessions in which they heard the U.S. and Russia flay each other verbally and U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie call for an end to feuding, the delegates voted doggedly to take on the entire list of tough, almost insoluble problems standing as a barrier to the land because Hanns Eisler was world accord.

Among the items admitted to the agenda were the partition of Palestine, peace in the Balkans, independence of Korea and Marshall's proposal to reorganize U. N. machinery to hold a tighter rein on the turbulent peace.

Soviet delegate Andrei Vishinsky's resolution calling on member nations to take criminal action against warmongering propagandists was whole-heartedly admitted to debate, probably because it will provide a chance to mull over the concept of freedom of the press.

Eisler and his wife finally were issued visas in Mexico City to over their entrance into this country. He has taken out naturalization papers and is a song writer in Hollywood.

In 1926, Eisler told the committee, he had applied for membership in the German Communist party, but had dropped out. A department of labor report made in 1938 said of him: "The evidence establishes preponderantly that Hanns Eisler is a Communist.

Mrs. Roosevelt's attitude toward the affair was lackadaisical. The note to Welles on behalf of Eisler was strictly routine, she said, adding that she neither knew Eisler nor remembered the note.

Farm Co-ops Do Huge Trade

If volume of trade is any indica- and private enterprises are not.) tion, America's farm cooperatives are establishing themselves ever more firmly as a significant force in the realm of agriculture.

In the 1945-46 marketing year, farm cooperatives, with more than five million individual farmers participating, did a record six billion dollar business, according to an estimate by the farm credit administration of the department of agriculture. (The FCA report came at a time when a house small business subcommittee was investigating any possible advantages the co-ops might have over other business because of the fact that they are tax-exempt

In the U. N. Spotlight

WASHINGTON. - Two men hold the spotlight at sessions of the general assembly of the United Nations in New York. They are:

Oswaldo Aranha of Brazil, exgaucho, ex-foreign minister and best champion of the United States in South America.

Herbert Evatt of Australia, great champion of small nations, twister of the Soviet tail, and an original architect of the United Nations.

Although General Marshall and the Russians retain the power, Aranha and Evatt represent the hopes and dreams of millions that someone may lead the world away from the widening chasm that yawns between the communist and capitalist worlds of the U.S.S.R. and the U.S.A.

Aranha, who served as president of the United Nations assembly at tts special Palestine session, is so strongly pro-American that it has hurt him in Brazil.

No ordinary diplomat, Aranha chases at delay, has been the only man able to put Soviet Ambassador Gromyko in his place. In New York last winter Gromyko would keep the U. N. council waiting a full hour, arrived whenever he felt like it. Courteous U. S. delegate Warren Austin patiently waited. But not Aranha. When it came his turn to preside over the council, Aranha delayed not one minute for the tardy Russian.

Australia's Evatt

Evatt, the other outstanding diplemat in New York, is equally pro-American, equally anti-Russian, very much the champion of the smaller nations. At San Francisco it was Evatt who foresaw the danger of what now has nearly wrecked the United Nations-the veto. He fought it to the bitter end, was just as much the critic of the United States on this point as he was of

At the Paris peace conference, Evatt was fighting side-by-side with Jimmie Byrnes against the Soviet's sabotaging tactics. In fact, Evatt sometimes seemed to be goading Byrnes into action.

Evatt married an American, loves American baseball, collects American books. At the age of 36 he was a member of the Australian supreme court, since 1940 a labor member of the Australian parliament, since 1941 foreign minister of Australians believe Japan cannot be trusted, cannot be allowed to rebuild her industry, must be kept a third-rate power. Many Americans on the other hand, led by MacArthur, consider Japan an Asiatic base against Russia.

U. N.'s Great Problem

Delegates to the United Nations will window-shop along Fifth avenue, sample New York night spots and gripe at high U. S. prices. Also, they will tackle three all-important problems affecting the peace of the

1. PALESTINE-Where the British will pull out if the country is partitioned into Arab-Jewish states, meaning that the United States will be called upon to send the already thinly spread American army. Ideal solution for Palestine would be to have it guarded by an international U. N. police force. But persistently, deliberately, the Russians have sabotaged our efforts to create such a force. They want world chaos. Obviously, a U. N. police force would help prevent chaos.

2. GREECE — Here the general assembly can override a Russian veto and act collectively to put down an aggressor-if General Marshall can muster a two-thirds maority. Russia, which has stirred up Yugoslav, Albanian, Bulgarian attacks on Greece, is considered an aggressor, and the U.S. proposes to have the U. N. act. This will be the greatest test of the United Nations

3. CAN THE UNITED NATIONS WORK?-Basically this is the most important question to be decided in New York, Scores of diplomats, millions of non-diplomats are getting discouraged. disgusted with the U. N. council. They see it as a futile debating society, made impotent by Russia's unreasonable rain of vetoes. It has blocked peace rather than promoted it.

The big question now is: Can freater powers be pumped into the United Nations by the general as-sembly? If not, the hopes of millions may go glimmering. That's why this session of the United Nations is co important.

Kathleen Norris Says:

Turn and Turn About Is Fair Play

Bell Syndicate.-WNU Features

"There is no work so exciting, so fascinating, so profitable as to make good Mother

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

THEN I was honorably discharged after four years of service,' writes a man from one of New York state's big cities, "I found readjustment very hard. I had risen to the rank of captain, and had had interesting duty overseas. To come back to our upper flat, in a quiet block, and begin to look for work was disheartening. I am 44. My old firm, a supply firm for big machinery, had been absorbed, and I was offered only half my former salary and much less than half my former responsibility. My wife advised my refusal, saying that we could wait for something better. That was two years ago.

"Meanwhile she had become interested in a woman who had patented a certain type of children's garments. After Adele had been with her a year, this woman died leaving the business and a halfinterest in it to my wife, who had befriended her to the extent of a small loan in the beginning. This means that Adele is now the head and part-owner of a business employing five or six assistants, with bookkeeper, sewing machines and all the setup of a small concern. Her profits run to as much as $600 or $700 a month. 'After consultation we decided to buy a farm, 17 miles out of town, and I put all my savings into that. My two daughters, my mother and I run this place. Adele pays the ticularly like Evatt, consider him bills and comes home once or twice a week. My health and nerve condition are perfect now and I love farming, but the place does not pay En route to New York, Evatt for itself. It galls me to have my stopped in Tokyo, visited General wife settling down perhaps twice a MacArthur. It was predicted the month to discuss expenses and write a check for me. He Does the Housework.

"In fact, the whole situation galls me. Jane and Pam are only 7 and 9, not old enough to be of much assistance. I help with breakfast, wipe dishes, sweep porches, drive the girls to school and stop on the way home to market. It isn't a man's life, yet I don't know what to do to change it. My wife has her city friends, her dates, her clubs, new clothes, theatre trips. She has lately met a young actor who is producing three plays for summer stock, and has parts in them all. When she comes home she listens to the children, is enthusiastic over newly-laid eggs and sauce from our own fruit trees, is always nice to my mother -and off she goes again.

"I said I was straightened out. It's not quite true. This life is ideally restful for me; I love it. But crowds, responsibility, competition in business, still confuse and exhaust me. I know I am unfit to seize the reins, become the breadwinner again. Yet to be free-while she is working-to cut flowers for my mother, help the children with homework, saw up a fallen tree for firewood seems like play. Am I losing her respect by sinking into this groove? We have 200 acres here but only six under cultivation. I could get a good price for top farm land. Shall we sell, move back into the city, and shall I brace myself to enter the fight again?"

Dear Frank, I say in reply: Yours is not the only home that has been turned topsy-turvy by the war. Among all the wreckage your problem is so simple, and has been so completely solved, that it cannot be ranked as a real situation at all. Women accept the status you find so galling, and rejoice in it, and FARMING PAYS

A man who has long been accustomed to supporting bis family naturally hates to stay home and do the housework while his wife earns the bread. As a result of the war's dislocations, bowever, many self-respecting men find themselves in this position.

Frank had been an executive of a machinery company before the war. He entered the army and gained a captain's commission. When he returned to civilian life be found that he could get only balf his former salary at the company. His wife, Adele, meanwhile had inherited a little business from a friend, and was making substantial profits.

Adele and Frank decided to buy a large farm near the city. Frank and the two little daughters now live on the farm, while Adele spends most of her time in the city with the business. This would be all right, except that Frank cannot make the farm pay, and he is annoyed at doing bousehold

Miss Norris advises bim to make the best of the situation, which is by no means a difficult one. Frank is working only six acres of the 200 they own. With a little assistance and some enterprise, Miss Norris tells him, he could earn a very good living from this large acreage.

men and women are not so different but what you can make it a success, too.

Put That Land to Work.

If you have 194 acres of top farm land still uncultivated, you are doing your country and, incidentally yourself, an injustice. Get some government bulletins, the advice of your county agriculture agent, and a man to help make all that land profitable. Without in the least abandoning your help to your mother, you can get a business started there that will satisfy your very soul. For there is no work so exciting, so fascinating, so profitable as to make good Mother Earth your partner. Chickens, wheat, prunes, walnuts, berries-the world cannot get enough of them, and plain dairy cattle pay fine dividends right from the first.

You are making the mistake so many wives make. You are trying to live Adele's life instead of your own. Let her work out her own solution, and concentrate on yours. That she is the chief moneymaker now is a postwar accident. Evidently she is happy in her work, and successfuland why not? Make your end of it equally fascinating and successful. Build a breakfast porch, paint a room here and take down a partition there, revel in the society of your mother and your girls. Whatever Adele may think now, yours is the better chance for permanent building and planning.

You were lucky in the war years to obtain rank, get high pay, have interesting work and come home uninjured. Then came Adele's turn for a liftle luck; she made herself invaluable to a business partner and was rewarded. But never forget that for years Adele-with all this ambition and capability pent up inside her-was doing exactly what you find so humiliating: caring for home and babies, dusting, cooking, marketing and asking you for money enough to meet the bills.

Fewer New Businesses

New businesses incorporated throughout the country in July amounted to 9,041, a decline of 24.6 per cent from the total of 11,987 recorded in the corresponding month of last year, Dun and Bradstreet reports. Thirty-eight states, or more than two-thirds of those reporting, listed fewer incorporations than in July, 1946. New York, with 1,947, continued to report the largest number of company formations, although the total was 31.8 per cent below that of July, 1946.

Money in Gayer Colors

Every few days somebody else comes out in favor of the proposal for vari-colored paper money. Norman Rockwell, the artist, has just indorsed the idea. It seems to be the feeling that money goes through our hands so fast today it can't be identified under the old plain hues.

In fact, we can't hang onto it long enough to depend on anything but the sense of touch.

"I'm for rainbow dough," said Elmer Twitchell today as another ten spot went through his hands at high speed and after one bounce. "We've got to do something to currency so it will hit the eye and leave a distinct impression on how much it was and in what direction it went.

"We Americans have a right to know whether it is money, lettuce, beet greens or box tops we are handling so briefly," he continued. There was a time when the passage of a five dollar bill through the human hand was not quicker than the eye.

"I have never found fault with the color of money before. The sample standard shades were okay. But now the public needs cheering up with regard to money-and new, bright colors might turn the trick. "What colors would you like to see our dough in?" we asked.

"Anything gay and festive," Elmer replied. "I think anything under a ten dollar bill should be in bright polka dots so we could identify it in flight."

It was notable on the list of big income men (not that they had much left) that the top boys were in the movie, liquor or racetrack business. We were just about to lecture junior on the importance of hard work, high morals, a good education and the nose to the grindstone when this switched us to a stern, "Oh, the heck with it!"

Ask almost any Texas farmer. He'll tell you his planning and plowing, his crop rotation and cultivation, are all designed to maintain productivity, to build a better land.

Yes, Texas farmers are natural conservationists. They conserve the soil, just as every Texas citizen, in one way or another, helps to conserve our land, our resources, our heritage of free enterprise.

United Gas has worked for years to conserve the state's natural gas resources. Like the farmer's soil, or the physician's skill, natural gas is of little value to anyone unless it can be used. United is making it available for use by constructing pipe lines to link wells with homes, businesses and industries throughout the area it serves. In this way, United is making a valuable, marketable commodity of gas that might otherwise remain worthless in the ground. That is practical conservation, for it gives value to this finest of fuels, stimulates industrial development, creates jobs, and benefits all the families in Texas.

OUIS CALHERN, back in New York after spending the summer in Hollywood working in "The Red Pony," was so enthusiastic about "The 'Arch of Triumph" that he could hardly talk about anything else. He worked in that one summer before last; has the role of Morosow, the Russian doorman - his whiskers had to be applied fresh every morning. But his boundless enthusiasm was for the work of Ingrid Bergman and Charles Boyer, which he says is superb. Calhern is one of the few who have been allowed to see the picture, so he ought to know. And his long and highly successful stage career qualifies him as an expert on really good acting.

Rise Stevens, back on "The Family Hour," really likes California as a place to live, whether she's working in a picture or not. Her charming house is just large enough for herself, her husband and her threeyear-old son, Nicky, and she shuns the gaudier social life in favor of small parties for close friends. What with her radio work and heavy schedule of Metropolitan Opera performances she is one of our busiest young singers-with a new picture already slated for next summer.

Stewart Granger, the English actor, ("Antony and Cleopatra," "The Man in Gray"), replaced James Mason in the hearts of many English fans when Mason came to this country. Now Granger is booked to come here next spring, for Universal - International. Meanwhile, Eagle-Lion Studios plan to jump the gun by releasing "Caravan," Granger's newest starring picture.

At Columbia they are still laughing about what happened to Larry Parks. He let his hair grow so long for his role as a Scottish Highlander in "The Swordsman" that a makeup man innocently tried to remove his "wig" and almost scalped him.

They say no one has really achieved fame until glorified in the comic strips; if that is true, Kate Smith can be sure of her laurels. She has been portrayed in "Li'l Abner." "Winnie Winkle" and "Flower Potts."

Every radio master of ceremonies seems to have his own method for picking contestants. Johnny Olsen, of ABC's "Ladies Be Seated," picks his participants just by walking through the audience;

A big cross-country tour for "Breakfast in Hollywood" gets under way October 10. Host Tom Breneman, his hats, orchids, wishing rings, etc., will visit eight cities; profits from seat sales will be given to the local Community Chests.

Mary Wickes, the comedienne, brought from Broadway to Holly-wood in 1941 for "The Man Who Came to Dinner," has ber second movie role in four years in Warner Bros.' "Christopher Blake." And she's a fine actress!

When Peggy Webber worked with Peter Lorre on his NBC "Mystery in the Air" everyone exclaimed over how slim she'd grown. "It's because of work, not lack of food," she explained. "The schedule I had to keep with Orson Welles for filming his 'Macbeth' is the best reducer I know of."

"The Whistler's" wife says it is fun being married to an actor who must remain anonymous-at parties he can't talk about his work. If he does, and people learn who he is, his job is over. But when he couldn't stand it any longer he wrote a drama for the series; now he can at least say "I wrote for 'The Whistler" when people ask what he does.

When We Leave The Bunch

(Two borrowed editorials this week — they both tell good stories.)

There is a sign on a cafe which reads "Cooperate. Remember the Banana — when it leaves the bunch it always gets skinned."

There's a moral in the wording on this cafe sign, and it is a moral which applies to the members of any group or organization.

It's all right to be an individualist in some things, but most of the things which are good for the community - and therefore, good for the individuals of the community must be gained by co-operation by planning and working together.

That is why we have a chamber of commerce in San Marcos and why all progressive communities bave similar organizations of business and professional men. These chambers of commerce have strength because when the organization speaks it is talking for all the people of the community. When thas developed a plan the likelihood is that it has been worked out by the combined wisdom and efforts of a large number of people whose chief aim is for community betterment.

It behooves all of us, then, to work for the community through co-operative organizations which are voluntarily organized for that purpose,

The San Marcos Chamber of Commerce has accomplished much during the years of its existence and in working and planning for projects which will mean more and more to the city as it grows an population and wealth. The officials of the organization always welcome new ideas from new people whether they be supporting members or not. But, to make this community-wide body stronger and more representative every individual in the community should join it and become an active, supporting member.

Remember the banana: - San Marcos Record.

We have often heard speakers before a Chamber of Commerce deplore the fact that the young people, after receiving their education in the community, move away and the community loses the advantage of their productive years. We were talking the other day to a young person who had done that very thing. We asked him why it was that the young people for the most part moved away and did not give the town the advantage of their skill and education. The answer is simple he said. It is too hard to get ahead in one's home town. Too many people think because they knew you as a barefoot school boy that you do not know anything and are not competent to handle anything important. They prove it by sending to some other town for a man to do an important job -- if they have such a job. The only thing left for the local young people is to play the game the same way and look for recognition elsewhere. Now and then a home boy is taken in and given a break but it is usually with considerable misgiving and at about half the salary that is paid to an outsider who often has less real ability and community interest than the home town boy or girl. There is a good reason why the young folks leave the home town. They have to to get the recognition that the homefolks too often don't seem to want to give them. - Karnes County News.

FIRE PREVENTION

ed throughout the year so that vigilance against fire becomes a fixed habit in each of our daily

Memory of the recent disaster at Texas City, not to mention the more recent destructive forest fires in Eastern Texas, should lend emphasis to the President's call for more care in dealing with this de-structive agency — uncontrolled

Fire insurance has been perfected to such an accurate system of protection as to afford, in many cases, fair amelioration for property losses; for instance, by June 26 90 per cent of the total of the claims resulting from the Texas City disaster in mid-April had already been paid, bringing relief to hundreds that could have come from no other source.

But however efficient a remedy may be - and any relief is always welcome - prevention is always better than treatment wherever prevention can be made to

And no amount of protection can bring back the lives taken in such a catastrophe.

And though many have been fortunate in never having suffered loss from fire, all are constantly exposed to the danger and none know when they may become a victim - if not through their own oversight through that of some

It. therefore, behooves each of us to take every possible precaution not only for our own safety but for the safety of others.

As a local community matter, Hondo has a reasonably low insurance rate, but one that can still be improved.

Thanks to a most efficient Volunteer Fire Department, that has earned this low rate by keeping the aggregate losses low, neverencless we have entirely too many

Scarcely a week passes without a can for them to extinguish a

And here is where the importance of individual vigilance on the part of each of us comes in.

Did you know that we, the people of Hondo, set our own insurince rates?

When we permit fires to get out of hand, the cost of insurance premiums goes up because an in-creased number of claims have to be paid.

It is up to us to keep rates down, and at the same time preserve our property, by preventing fires -not just this week or next but all the time.

if you dont think peepul r crazy you ought to go over an talk to this guy marvin grell not that he iz any dummer than anybody who iz unforchunate enuff to be a human bein but i met him out in tha alley tha other day an struck up a conversashun an we got pritty intimate about it all after i told him my ole man came to this country frum persia earmarked for a persian rug which is considered tha pinnacle of success fer a hi class cat and ackshually i cum frum a long line uv successful persian rugs only the ole man he runs out on them becuz he figgers he cant pay tha carpet tax anyway so this guy grell pops up and sez say did i ever tell u about my four fathers?

now what is this i sez to him what do you take me for a dummox because i know that no man can have four fathers an he sez no you dont see wut i mean wut i mean is my aunts sisters surely you kno that a guys four fathers are tha same as his aunts sisters.

now by this time i am wundering if this guy grell iz a fudgetive frum a padded cell an i tell him look here marvin i read esquire an i happen to kno that ther is cer-
